

AGA Membership

Interested in becoming an AGA member?

Point your web browser to www.agacgfm.org/membership/join and join today! Don't forget to note AGA D.C. as your primary chapter on the membership application.

Interested in getting more involved in AGA D.C.?

Input your contact information into www.agadc.org/interested and we'll be in touch!

If you would prefer to write us, send the following information to the AGA address listed on this brochure:

- Name
- E-mail address
- Employer
- Work phone number
- Area of expertise (e.g. Accounting, Auditing, Budgeting, Contracting)

Audience at one of the monthly luncheons.

Members provide community service in events such as the ALS Walk.

Photo: Rebecca Roth

AGA D.C. President Ann Davis presents a check for the Raymond Einhorn Memorial Research Fund to AGA National

AGA D.C.
P.O. Box 423
Washington, D.C.
20044-0423

The Association of Government Accountants (AGA)—a community of more than 15,000 members serving to advance government accountability—provides professional development opportunities and thought leadership to promote best practices in financial management.

AGA enriches the professional development of those involved in all fields of financial management at the federal, state and local government levels, as well as the private sector and academia.

About the AGA

Established in Washington, D.C., the AGA has provided the government financial management community direction for over 50 years. The D.C. chapter, known as AGA D.C., serves over 1,500 members in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. Come check out AGA D.C.!

We offer special activities for those early in their careers, as well as for those in other stages of career and life, including retirees. AGA D.C. will meet your professional and personal goals, while helping you become a leader.

Meeting Your Goals

How does AGA D.C. further your professional development?

By providing continuing professional education opportunities such as:

- ✓ Monthly luncheons featuring speakers who address the latest in government financial management thinking and practices.
- ✓ The annual education conference hosted in the Spring.
- ✓ AGA's annual Professional Development Conference and Exposition (PDC), prominently supported by AGA D.C.
- ✓ Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM) training to members, including Early Career members.
- ✓ Sponsorship of audio conferences on pertinent financial management topics.

The family (AGA D.C.) that plays together stays together.

What about networking opportunities?

Take your choice. You can:

- ✓ Serve as an AGA D.C. liaison for your organization.
- ✓ Be a mentor or a mentoree in the chapter mentor program.
- ✓ Attend brown bag luncheons for Early Career members and liaisons.
- ✓ Participate in frequent social outings.
- ✓ Support community service projects.
- ✓ Attend chapter monthly luncheons.

AGA Resources

How can I learn more about AGA D.C.?

Visit our website at www.agadc.org, and take a look at our on-line newsletter, The Washington Connection. You'll also find information on professional and social activities and community service events.

Also take a look at AGA National's website, www.agacgfm.org for additional AGA activities and offerings.

Membership Dues

AGA National Dues:

- Government Member, $90/Year
- Private Sector Member, $150/Year
- Early Career Member, $45/Year
- Student Member, $30/Year

AGA D.C. Chapter Dues:

- Government Member, $10/Year
- Private Sector Member, $10/Year
- Early Career Member, $5/Year
- Student Member, $5/Year

To add a DC Chapter affiliation to your AGA membership, contact AGA National Membership Department -- Jessica Jones at 703-684-6931, ext. 317 or jjones@agacgfm.org.